Interpretive Program and Event Descriptions

Fall Foliage Fandango Thursday, 11am October 6 & 20

Meet at the Visitor
Center

This fun, easy, and lighthearted walk explores many of the exciting and hidden treasures of Mount Greylock. Enter the Visitor Center and from there, continue a journey over a stone wall, and into an ancient orchard. Stepping over 2 miles of relatively flat, shaded terrain, we will jaunt past the ricks of the mountain, next to the mysterious source of the mighty Housatonic River, all on a carpet of foliage. Be prepared for weather, wear sturdy shoes, bring a snack, bug spray, sunscreen and drinking water. Programs runs 1 –1.5 hours on an easy-moderate trail. Meet at Visitor Center and walk from there. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Program runs rain or shine!

Nice & Easy Nature Hike Guided walk Wednesdays, 11am

Meet at the Visitor
Center

Easy-paced, one to 3 mile walks geared especially for seniors, but open to all ages. Various hikes including a butterfly walk; tree and wildflower identification; bird viewing or “philosophy in the woods” hike. Hike durations will be one hour to two and a half hours long, location varies. Be prepared for the weather, wear sturdy footwear, bring a light snack, bug spray, sunscreen and drinking water. Location varies. Meet at the Visitor Center.

Leaf Peepin’ in the Park!

Self Guided and By Arrangement ~ Foliage packets are available at the Visitor Center.

Autumn is on it’s way and the leaves are already turning here at Mt. Greylock! If you love Fall Foliage, this is the best place to be! With views up to 90 miles on a clear day, you can see the leaves turning across 4 states from the Summit, and even better views from the base! Stop by the Visitor Center to pick up a Fall Foliage Packet including leaf identification charts and Fun Fall Facts for the kids, along with a list of the best viewing areas in the region! This activity is designed as a self-guided hike or driving tour, OR you may CALL to reserve a guided tour with a Park Interpreter at 413-499-4262 (staffing permitting). For all hikes - be prepared for the weather, wear sturdy footwear, bring a snack and water.

Children must be accompanied by an adult.
